Dear colleagues!

We invite you to take part in the work of the international conference
CURRENT PROBLEMS OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF BIOORGANIC CHEMISTRY invites you to take part in the conference on November 13-14, 2023 in Tashkent, the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The conference will be devoted to the discussion of the current state and topical problems of the development of bioorganic chemistry, molecular medicine and biotechnology:

- Search, isolation and synthesis of new biologically active compounds (proteins, peptides, nucleotides, carbohydrates, low molecular weight compounds).
- Physicochemical methods for studying the structure and mechanism of action of biologically active compounds. Structure-function relationship.
- Plant stress. Chemistry and biology.
- Omix data integration technologies: genomics, proteomics, peptidomics, metabolomics.
- Innovative drugs based on biologically active compounds. Pharmacoinformatics: search and modeling of drugs.
- Bioengineering and biotechnology (including plant biotechnology).

Plenary presentations (20 minutes) and oral presentations (10 minutes) are planned.

Previously unpublished submissions will be selected on the basis of relevance and relevance to the theme of the Conference, meeting deadlines for submissions (until September 1, 2023).

The official languages for conference presentations are Russian, Uzbek and English.

Specialists wishing to participate in the conference are asked to send abstracts and participation information by 1 September 2023 to the email address conference110@biochem.uz as a file in RTF format.

Responsible of the conference - Oshchepkova Yulia Igorevna

Phone: (99871) 262-99-62, (99893) 533-36-98.

Fax: (99871) 262-70-63.

Notification of inclusion of the paper in the Conference program and invitations will be sent to the authors by 1 October 2023.

Abstract formatting rules

2-page abstracts in Russian, Uzbek or English should be submitted in electronic version in Microsoft Office Word 2003 and in print copy (for participants from Uzbekistan, 1 copy).
